- DEBATING THE DEVIL IN THE NEED FOR GOD:
- I'M A GOOD PERSON
- WHO NEEDS PRAYER
- I'M YOUNG I WANT TO HAVE FUN
- I'VE NEVER FELT GOD
- I CAN TAKE CARE OF MYSELF
- I'M TOO BUSY
- IS THERE A GOD?

Deacon Tom portrays the devil challenging young people on matters of faith in the real world environment. Critical thinking skills are needed to “win” this debate and current trends and feelings are put in their rightful place.

These sessions are great for junior high education, Confirmation preparation, youth groups and retreats. They are lively, fun and engaging.

Some comments on youth who have been involved in these sessions:

- It was kind of hard because he was so in character
- Very good, taught me many things
- I hope we can do it again~ very spirited
- Deacon Tom is a great debater but not a good devil
- Taught us how easily the devil can come into our lives and how to turn away from him and turn to God instead
- It was fun, but we couldn't keep up with him sometimes- he stumped us
- It was fun to defend God

WHAT WOULD YOU DO:

- GETTING AWAY WITH IT
- PEER PRESSURE
- SHOULD I LIE
- WHO'S GOING TO GET HURT
- NO ONE WILL EVER KNOW
- I NEED TO DO WHAT'S BEST FOR ME
- I HAVE TIME TO DO THE RIGHT THING

Deacon Tom uses real life case studies to convert the “religion to reality”. Stories are used to make life choices about issues using faith and morality.

These samples test the conscience.

These sample stories test the justice and the ability to think in real time.

These sample stories will test the individual’s Catholic identity

Issues of intellect and feelings are learned to be measured and how they are used in decision making

These real life stories will test the relationship with Christ versus the demands and pressures for the world.

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Received at Baptism, renewed and strengthen at Confirmation, these gifts are the real superpowers every person has to change the world.

Many don't know they have them or how to use them.

Learning you have them and how to use them makes you nearly invincible to evil and makes goodness look clear and strong.
